My dear Sir,

I have had the pleasure of receiving your favor of the 22^d inst. The rhyming you so kindly remember appeared in December 1819, and added stanzas in 1820. or 1821. I generally visit New York about the 1st of every month, and if you will please inform me when & where

I can leave the house of calling on you there, I will most willingly give you the explanations to which you desire. They would claim too much space for a letter. Grateful for the compliment you pay me,
I am,

My dear Sir,

Very truly yours,

Fitz. Greene Halleck
